The Sustainable Farming Association of Minnesota's 18th Annual Conference

"Sustaining Our Farms: Produce, Pasture & Perseverance"

Featuring keynote speaker Joel Salatin

Saturday, February 21, 2009

St. Olaf College, Northfield, MN

This invitation is for you and your organization to Sponsor SFA's première gathering and information celebration of the year.

Please consider sponsoring, exhibiting, and participating as a:

◆ SFA Conference Sponsor

Assist SFA in a most significant way by selecting the Gold, Silver or Bronze sponsorship level on the accompanying registration form. Sponsors will be featured in publicity and promotional materials, and in the SFA conference guide, distributed to all conference attendees. All sponsor levels include exhibit space and publicity.

◆ SFA Conference Exhibitor/Farmers Market

Display and promote your mission, message, products and information, and interact with the most innovative farmers and sustainable agriculture 'movers and shakers' in Minnesota. Set up begins at 7:30 am Saturday; take down after 5:00 pm.

About the Sustainable Farming Association of Minnesota:

We are a statewide nonprofit educational organization of farmers and others committed to the ecologically sound and profitable production of a diverse array of healthy foods, renewable energy and natural fiber. Wisdom, experience and values guide us toward farming methods that support local and regional food systems, diversified and decentralized production, community health and prosperity, and a high quality of life for generations to come.

Our Mission: The Sustainable Farming Association of Minnesota supports the development and enhancement of sustainable farming systems through innovation, demonstration, education, and farmer-to-farmer networking.
